As a Bay Area video producer, I've worked with some of San Francisco's leading production companies. The bulk of my experience has been in high-end, corporate video production. Over the past 8 years, I have managed budgets of all sizes, always maintaining the highest production standards. My producing experience also includes documentaries, music videos and other educational programming, all of which have helped make me a flexible and responsive producer. I enjoy my work and continually challenge myself to produce creative, high quality, film and video in any genre.

Production Experience:

Freelance - Producer/Director, 2001-Present. High-end corporate video production, music videos, PSAs

Smush Media - Producer/Director, 2001-2004. Development and production of documentary and educational film projects.

Pedersen Media Group – Staff Producer, 1998 - 2001. High-end corporate video and event production.

Freelance - Production Coordinator, 1996 - 1997. Commercial and theatrical production.
